BAGELS, BRUCHOS, and BUBBEMEISES

Join Congregation Kol Ami for an innovative, warm, and intimate approach to Shabbat morning learning, discussion, stories, and music. We will eat a little (bagels), bless a little (bruchos/brachot), tell a few stories (bubbemeises), and learn together. Our own Peter Mackler will share his expertise and experiences in Jewish learning from the Shalom Hartman Institute.

Our Shabbat morning program will take place February 22 at 10 AM at the home of Dr. Nancy Cohen. Prior knowledge of Hebrew is not required, and all are welcome.

Please RSVP to the Temple office as space is limited. The address and phone number will be provided by the office.

Rabbi Eger Online!

Did you know Rabbi Eger not only keeps up her Torah blog on the Kol Ami website, but also has her own personal blog?

There are new posts every day,

It is instantly recognizable - musical shorthand for anything Jewish, a happy party tune that you dance to at weddings, bar mitzvahs and even at Major League Baseball games. It conjures up wistful smiles, memories of generations past...and no shortage of eye rolling. But as audiences will discover in Hava Nagila (The Movie), the song is much more than a tale of Jewish kitsch and bad bar mitzvah fashions. It carries with it an entire constellation of history, values and hopes for the future. In its own believe-it-or-not way, Hava Nagila encapsulates the Jewish journey over the past 150 years. It also reveals the power of one song to express and sustain identity, to transmit lessons across generations and to bridge cultural divides and connect us all on a universal level.
