As a community of faith, Congregation Kol Ami, West Hollywood's Reform Synagogue applauds the decision of Governor Jan Brewer of Arizona to veto SB1062. This legislation would have targeted gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender residents and visitors to Arizona for discrimination by businesses. Arizona is our neighbor.

Judaism teaches that we must be good neighbors and reach out in times of bounty and in times of need.

As a Rabbi, I applaud Governor Brewer's decision to stand for equality under the law which is promised by the United States Constitution. As a baseball fan who yearly visits the cactus league I am relieved that on my trips to Spring Training I can be assured that I will be treated equally and fairly in Arizona.

It is instantly recognizable - musical shorthand for anything Jewish, a happy party tune that you dance to at weddings, bar mitzvahs and even at Major League Baseball games. It conjures up wistful smiles, memories of generations past...and no shortage of eye rolling.

But as audiences will discover in Hava Nagila (The Movie), the song is much more than a tale of Jewish kitsch and bad bar mitzvah fashions. It carries with it an entire constellation of history, values and hopes for the future. In its own believe-it-or-not way, Hava Nagila encapsulates the Jewish journey over the past 150 years. It also reveals the power of one song to express and sustain identity, to transmit lessons across generations and to bridge cultural divides and connect us all on a universal level.
